Dream Catchers Lassos Community Support with Cowboys Uncorked

WILLIAMSBURG, Virginia – More than 270 from the Hampton Roads community left their wingtips and heels at home and showed up in cowboy boots to support Dream Catchers at the Cori Sikich Therapeutic Riding Center. The nonprofit’s annual Cowboys Uncorked fundraiser was another success on Nov. 10, 2019.

Title sponsor Malvin, Riggins + Company, PC, a Peninsula-based Certified Public Accounting firm, once again hosted the festive round-up. Held at The Williamsburg Winery, Wessex Hall was transformed into a western saloon. Cowboy fare, wild west games and line dancing were enjoyed by all. The night’s most popular aspect was the “arrest” of some of the community’s most notorious cowboys and cowgirls – all in the name of the charity. Attendees could “post bail” for the “jailbirds,” and the evening’s big winner was “Maverick Ruth McMahon” who was charged with “being a daredevil.”

Proceeds from the event are used to support the mission of Dream Catchers, a non-profit organization that provides 80 to 100 life-changing therapeutic riding lessons and other equine-assisted activities each week to children and adults with special needs. Program participants are from throughout Hampton Roads and Richmond and have one or more of 150 conditions including autism, cerebral palsy, stroke, trauma and developmental delays.

The 8th annual Cowboys Uncorked was made possible from generous support from Jailhouse Sponsors Susan and Tom Chamberlain, Boot Scootin’ Boogie Sponsor Henry S. Branscome LLC, Cowboy Card Game Sponsor Spain Commercial Inc., Money Wheel Sponsor HMP Properties and major in-kind sponsors: The Williamsburg Winery, Big Top Entertainment and The Catering Company.
